THANK YOU FR. PAUL

I want to thank Fr. Paul Sims, CR for his assistance at our weekend Masses during the past year. As of June 1, 2008 Fr. Paul is officially the president at Gordon Tech High School. Although his new assignment will have many demands on his time, I'm sure Fr. Paul will be with us whenever possible. Congratulations, Fr. Paul, on your new assignment and may God bless you in all you do.

Fr. Joe Glab, CR

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

ADMITTING OUR NEED FOR GOD

As often as we hear the message of today's scriptures, we seem to be able to resist it. The readings invite us, once again, to rely completely and utterly on God's love and mercy in our lives. And, once again, we continue to find ways around that invitation. It's for other people, not us. It's for tomorrow, not today. We can make it on our own talents, goodness, money, hard work, or wisdom. Yet, today's scriptures call our bluff. They invite us to admit our need for God and put our lives in God's hands. We who sit comfortably and smugly at the Lord's Table are beckoned, once again, to follow Jesus in faith and gratitude and love.

ANSWERS TO YOUR CATHOLIC IQ!!

- 1) d) The many ways God saves his people in the Old Testament, especially those which involve water, are said to "prefigure" the sacrament of baptism. See the Catechism #1217-1222
- 2) c) The sacristy is the place where Mass vestments are kept and cared for. The person who is responsible for the vestments and vessels worn and used in our sacramental celebrations is called a sacristan. Sacristy and Sacristan derive from the Latin word for holy, sancte.

Last week's Treasure considered our posture of genuflection, which is virtually unknown in Jewish prayer, although scripture does describe Jesus kneeling in heartfelt prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane.

The custom of genuflection is not found everywhere in the Catholic Church. In fact, it is a bit of breach of etiquette to genuflect in most Eastern Catholic Churches. If you're visiting an Eastern Catholic or an Orthodox church, the "when in Rome" rule should be adopted. Watch what the home team is doing! Usually, Eastern Catholics and Orthodox reserve a small portion of the Eucharistic bread for the dying in a cupboard or Eucharistic dove, but it is not a center of attention or devotion. The rule is to make a profound bow, called a "metasis," toward the altar—bowing deeply while making the sign of the cross.

East and West split years before we Westerners began to reserve the Blessed Sacrament prominently in our churches. Thus, the East never changed the original custom of bowing toward the altar. Increasingly, as tabernacles became more widespread in the West and moved into prominent placement within churches, we replaced the bow toward the altar with a genuflection toward the Blessed Sacrament when its place of reservation is visible.

In a church where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved in a special chapel or off the main axis of the building, normally you should bow toward the altar when you enter your pew, because the Eucharistic table is the principal sign of Christ's presence in the church building. If you have ever participated in the liturgy of Dedication of a Church and Altar, there is no mistaking the altar's significance: it is first slathered with chrism and then adorned with a brazier billowing clouds of incense that fill the whole church as a sign of prayer and presence!

Our many thanks to all of you parishioners for contributing to our April 24th thru April 26th retreat. The weekend was a Spiritual triumph! We had over 4,000 dozen cookies (the most ever) to share with the officers and inmates. You helped spread the light and love to men that otherwise have little hope. You helped bring light into darkness.

To witness the words of John 1... "the light has come into the world".

Dear Fr. Glab:

Thank you for allowing us to hold our annual Mother's Day Flower Sale at your parish. Through the generosity of your parishioners, your flower sales totaled $2,556.00. Proceeds raised from this event will help greatly in meeting our summer expenses.

Again, our deepest thanks to you, your parishioners, and the many volunteers who helped make this fundraiser a success. Because of your participation, many babies will live to celebrate this special day with their Moms in the years and decades ahead!

Thank you for your leadership in the protection of the life of all God's children, born and unborn.
