FEAR NOT

How do people find hope in the face of suffering and death? That is the question addressed by today's scriptures. We hear of the suffering of Jeremiah and the psalmist. We hear of the death that "reigned from Adam to Moses" (Romans 5:14). We hear of the fears of the Twelve as Jesus sends them out into the world to preach and heal.

Through all this tribulation one message rings out loud and clear—"Do not be afraid!" The God who saved Jeremiah and the psalmist and Jesus is fully present to save us through the gracious gift of Jesus Christ. We have nothing and no one to fear.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Eucharistic Prayers at the heart of our liturgy have a long history, beginning with the extemporaneous prayers of the early Christians. The presiders gave thanks from their hearts, not from any prearranged text, over the gifts of bread and wine. When the assembly had the sense that enough was said, someone would call out "Amen!" and that was that. For the most part, the plan flowed directly from Jewish meal prayers, which always recalled God's mighty deeds. Some other markers and signposts were added almost everywhere fairly early, like the presider's call to attention: "Lift up your hearts!"

Scholars have provided us with translations of many early texts. These have actually helped us craft new liturgical prayers, because until the liturgical reforms of forty years ago, no one could recall any prayer but the Roman Canon, now called Eucharistic Prayer I. For hundreds of years in the West, it was our only Eucharistic Prayer, and it was only in Latin. But the history of our Eucharistic Prayers is amazingly fruitful, and models have come down to us that have yielded new insights and expressions. The old custom of improvising texts according to a master plan has not endured, but we have now rediscovered a plan of standardizing the text while allowing for a great variety.

UNEXPECTED TURNS

I asked GOD for strength that I might achieve;

I was made weak that I might humbly
obey.

I asked for health that I might do greater
things;

I was given infirmity that I might do better
things.

I asked for riches that I might be happy;
I was given poverty that I might be wise.

I asked for power that I might have the praise of others;
I was given weakness that I might feel the need of GOD.

I asked for all things that I might enjoy life;
I was given full life that I might enjoy all
things

I got nothing I asked for;
But everything I hoped for.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each year, in support of the works of our Holy Father, the annual Peter's Pence Collection is held in parishes throughout the world. This special appeal will enable Pope Benedict XVI to provide emergency relief to those who suffer from war, disease and natural disaster.

The theme of this year's collection, Christ Our Hope, echoes that of the Holy Father's apostolic visit to the United States in April of this year. Likewise, the theme reflects the Pope's message in His encyclical Spe Salvi (On Christian Hope). In that encyclical, His Holiness said that faith in Christ brings well-founded hope in eternal salvation, the "great hope" that can sustain people through the trials of this world.

Your generous support of this collection will enable the successor of Peter to respond to those most in need throughout our world. May Our Lord continue to bless you and your loved ones as we live with a renewed sense of hope with one another in our parishes, the Archdiocese and the Universal Church.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

ANSWERS TO YOUR CATHOLIC IQ!!

- 1) a) Chrism is the name for a holy oil that contains balsam or balm, which gives it a distinctive and appealing fragrance. It is used in baptism, confirmation, and holy orders, and other liturgical anointings and blessings. The act of anointing with chrism is a chrismation. The eastern Churches call the sacrament of confirmation "Chrismation." As was said above, Eastern Churches give the sacrament of confirmation to babies at the same time they are baptized.
- 2) d) A legal divorce does not automatically excommunicate either party. Nor does an annulment affect the legitimacy of the children.

Dear St Matthew Parish,

When it comes to doing the Lord's work among the poor and needy, we recognize that we walk with others whose hands, hearts and faith make it possible for us to show something to the Lord when He returns for us. We thank you for your generosity to Zacchaeus House with your Christian alms of $3,555.22. Your charity supports our ministry of helping men get back on their feet following personal misfortune.
